

LOUIS BERTIGNAC - LIVE!!

2 October

GAELIC THEATRE
Devonshire St
Surry Hills

Louis Bertignac made a name for himself on the international music scene as the founding guitarist of the legendary French rock group TELEPHONE.

time, and one of the finest French songwriters! Ten of the twelve songs on his album 'Longtemps' (a long time), were the result of a sensual artistic collaboration with co-writer Carla Bruni. The album found a balance between feminine sensibility and guitar hero antics. A great stage performer, Bertignac offers a mix of his own compositions, both from his solo career and from the Telephone era, as well as a few covers of famous rock'n'roll hits. Don't miss the performance - it is a unique opportunity!

In the course of his long and turbulent career, Bertignac established himself as one of the greatest guitarists of all

Performing one night only! 8pm, 2 October 2010.

Tickets on sale NOW!! www.moshtix.com.au

$25 Advanced bookings

$20 Alliance Française de Sydney - FACCI Members – French School Members (code: TELEPHONE)

$30 Door sales (on the night, no discounts)

Alliance Française Sydney

PRESENTED BY ALLIANCE FRANÇAISE DE SYDNEY & THE FRENCH EMBASSY IN AUSTRALIA

www.afsydney.com.au