Date:	Saturday 26 February
Meeting Point:	In front of the Royal Exhibition Building on Nicholson Street @ 8.45am (for 9.00am departure)
Return to CBD:	5.30pm
Ticket cost	Members $75 each Non-Members $90 each

FACCI YP invites you to join us on a tour around the Mornington Peninsula, as we discover the beautiful surrounds of Melbourne and the range of quality wines it has to offer.

The day will also be a great opportunity to socialise and network with members and friends of FACCI Young Professionals.

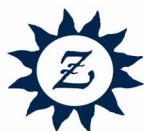

A bus will pick you up on Saturday morning from the CBD and drive you back to Melbourne in the evening.

Meet at 8.45am in front of the Royal Exhibition Building on Nicholson Street (Carlton). The bus will leave at 9.00am so don't be late!

Program on the day will include:

- Morning Tea in the bus on the way to the Mornington Peninsula
- Wine tasting at Stumpy Gully Vineyard
- Wine tasting at Box Stallion Winery
- Wine tasting and lunch of wood fired pizzas and salads at Dromana Estate
- Strawberry picking at Sunny Ridge Strawberry Farm

TASTINGS ORGANISED DURING THE DAY WILL INCLUDE:

STUMPY GULLY WINES
Zantvoort Estate

This Moorooduc vineyard is owned by the Zantvoort family who have planted a combination of unusual and classic varieties of grapes for which the region is becoming increasingly famous. Winner of a Bronze medal for their 2009 Pinot Noir at the 2010 Concours des Vins du Victoria and winner of the Trophy for Best Cabernet for their Stumpy Gully 2006 Cabernet Sauvignon in 2008.

Operating since 2000, this former thoroughbred stud is now exporting wines to America, Canada and China. Box Stallion was awarded the Trophy for the Best White Aromatic Wine for their 2008 Gewürztraminer at the 2010 Concours des Vins du Victoria.

For over a quarter of a century Dromana Estate has been a benchmark for wines from the Mornington Peninsula. The restaurant offers quality al fresco dining, serving produce from their own garden. Dromana Estate was awarded the Trophy for Best Chardonnay of the Show and the Trophy for Best Wine of the Show for their 2009 Mornington Estate Chardonnay at the 2010 Concours des Vins du Victoria .

Sunny Ridge is one of the largest producers of strawberries in Australia and spans over 350 acres. You will be able to pick your own large punnet of strawberries to take home with you.
