Luxury personal service

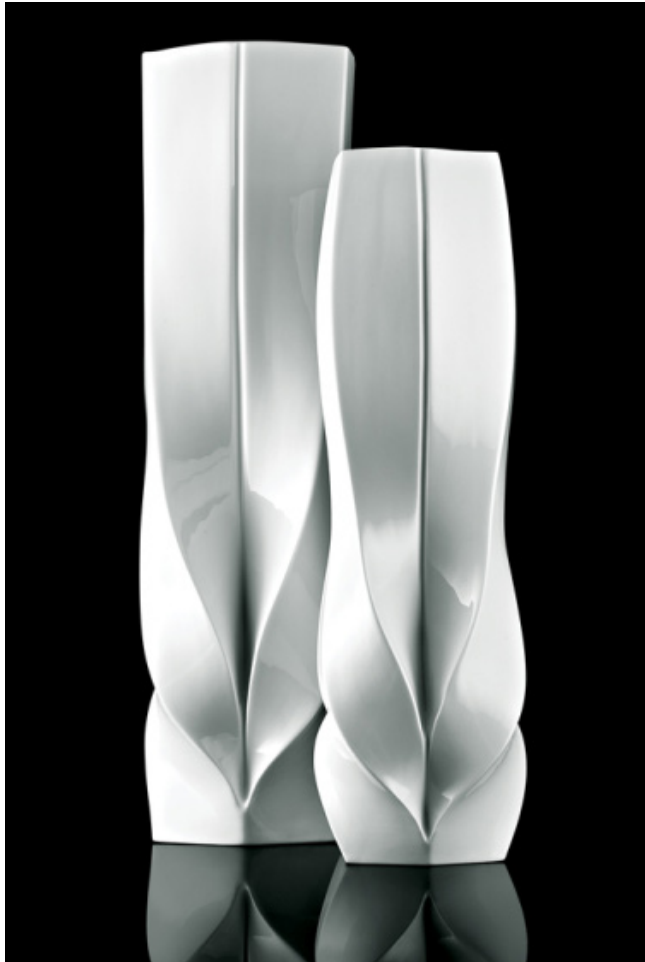

Treize Curated Luxury curates the rare, collectable and one of a kind in confidentiality with an elite level of service.

Treize Curated Luxury is an elite and confidential luxury personal service. With an extended knowledge of luxury craftsmanship, collectable and rare made to order products as well as a strong expertise in high-end service, Treize Curated Luxury delivers highly personal elegant and stylish experiences, leaving everlasting impressions on its clientele.

Based in Sydney, we offer a confidential bespoke elite service for both private and corporate clients worldwide.

Constantly developing close personal and business relationship with the finest artisans and companies around the world, we ensure to deliver the utmost experience to our clients by facilitating ownership of the world's most unique handcrafted, one of a kind luxury items.

Our reliability, discretion, savoir-faire and integrity are the drive and values of our service and we not only ensure that the demands of our clients are met, but also that they far exceed their expectations.

From the bespoke to the collectable, Treize Curated Luxury brings the very best in luxury to a selected clientele.

As a matter of confidentiality, we choose to not develop our online and social media presence.

Our service is highly personalized and exclusively on appointment. We will meet you in person at an agreed time and location.
